

Mark Goros, CEO, Caringo

BIOGRAPHY

With an exceptional background and career in sales, marketing and business development, Mark Goros brings 30 years experience and management to Caringo. Most recently, Mark was a General Partner in a venture firm where he invested and assisted in the development of a number of new startups and executed two secondary venture deals over the last several years. He has worked with 8 startups including Oracle, Sybase, Gain Technology and BroadVision and has served in nearly every role from technical, to sales, to CEO. He has helped execute two IPOs and three M&A transactions. Mark has a gift for setting up an operational structure that allows both technology innovators and sales teams to thrive and to produce results.