Patrick Yew, Director of Post Production, TV Guide Network

BIOGRAPHY

Patrick Yew is the Director of Post Production at the TV Guide Network. He has overseen the Post facility for five years managing the transition from standard def to high def, from a NAS to a SAN, from tape to tapeless, from video feeds to IP delivery and the upgrade of three versions of Final Cut Pro. The facility has 17 edit bays, 7 digitizing stations, 3 screening stations, a 7 node cluster farm and 6 administrative computers. Previously, Patrick oversaw technical operations at a boutique production house. He formerly worked on set holding various positions ranging from PA to First AD to Line Producer in independent movie and television production. He holds a BA in film studies from the University of California, Santa Barbara.
